

EDUCATION

Master of Public Health in Health Behavior and Health Education - University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, School of Public Health, May 1996

Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences – University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, College of Literature, Science and the Arts, May 1993

CAREER PROFILE

Center for Managing Chronic Disease
University of Michigan
Research Area Specialist

Ann Arbor, MI
February 2006 - Present

Current Projects

- Manage all aspects of CDC funded research project on epilepsy self management that examines intervention models and key informant perspectives
- Coordinate and conduct key informant interviews on epilepsy self management
- Participate in establishing and evolving a national network of epilepsy self management researchers
- Manage NIH funded project in partnership with a non-profit advocacy organization to survey, primarily online, 1500 people with chronic conditions and caregivers
- Conduct qualitative analyses
- Coordinate and write substantial portions of successful grant applications
- Supervise graduate student research assistants and interviewers

Past Projects

- Managed analysis and dissemination efforts of the Asthma Health Outcomes Project
- Conducted qualitative analysis in asthma programs and coalition processes and outcomes
- Designed and developed the content and architecture of the Allies Against Asthma website
- Led dissemination efforts of Allies Against Asthma findings
- Launched the Physician Asthma Care Education website in collaboration with the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute
- Coordinated and participated in team writing projects for publication and other dissemination strategies

Performix Group,
Training Specialist Consultant

Southfield, MI
January 2005 – January 2006

- Developed, implemented and managed site-specific communication and change management strategies for a global company initiative to accelerate and improve the discovery process
- Coordinated training, project team consultation, and a business champions network to promote the uptake of a new global research data access tool
- Managed customer communications and issues resolution for data integrity issues related to a new global research data access tool

Pfizer Research Informatics,
Training Specialist Consultant

Ann Arbor, MI
August 2004 – December 2004

- Led global training efforts for PGVL v1.8, a proprietary Pfizer software used by chemists for the development of virtual chemical compound libraries
- Developed all PGVL v1.8 training materials, including over 20 web-based animated viewlets
- Conducted training for technical support staff and business champions on new features of PGVL

University of Michigan,
School of Public Health,
Instructional Technology Specialist

Ann Arbor, MI
November 1998 – July 2004
October 2003 – July 2004

- Managed multiple e-training projects of the Michigan Public Health Training Center and the Academic Center for Public Health Preparedness
- Collaborated with practitioners and faculty in the development of CD-ROMs and online training courses
- Creatively applied distance learning principles to the development of training modules
- Administered WebCT online course management system and provided technical assistance to students

University of Michigan,
School of Public Health,
REACH Detroit Project, Internet Connectivity
Connectivity Coordinator

Ann Arbor, MI
November 1998 – July 2004
October 2001 – October 2003

- Coordinated project website development and maintenance
- Managed the distribution of over 100 internet devices to Detroit families
- Trained and managed ten project staff in the set-up, use and technical support of internet devices
- Led design and implementation of the evaluation plan

University of Michigan,
School of Public Health,
Michigan Public Health Training Center,
Assistant Director

Ann Arbor, MI
November 1998 – July 2004
November 2000 – October 2003

- Developed and monitored Center activities with director and committees
- Researched, recommended and coordinated the development of web-based options for training courses
- Represented and promoted the Center at state-wide professional group meetings and conferences
- Supervised graduate student research assistants

University of Michigan,
School of Public Health,
Communities of Color and Genetics Policy Project,
Project Administrator/Community-Academic Liaison

Ann Arbor, MI
November 1998 – July 2004
November 1998 – November 2001

- Coordinated all activities of a collaborative research project involving 15 community organizations and 10 investigators from three universities
- Developed culturally-appropriate genetic and policy educational materials for diverse communities with project investigators and a community advisory board
- Supervised graduate student research assistants and administrative assistant

Peace Corps
Community Health Educator

Ecuador
August 1996 – October 1998

- Taught over 200 classes and workshops for rural school children, adolescents and women on preventative health topics such as nutrition, dental hygiene and prevention of parasites
- Organized two women's groups and launched microbusinesses in poultry to increase family income and the nutritional quality of the families' diets
- Individually counseled parents in nutrition, family planning and personal hygiene
- Managed the medical check-ups and parasite medication for 500+ children in 14 distant communities

Michigan Alzheimer's Disease Research Center
Health Educator

Ann Arbor, MI
May 1996 – July 1996

- Developed and piloted education materials for elderly patients and their families
- Analyzed qualitative data for community needs assessments

- Collaborated with health educator team to plan and facilitate community advisory board meetings

University of Michigan School of Public Health,
Health Science Research Assistant II

Ann Arbor, MI
June 1993 – August 1994

- Investigated the effects of industrial solvents on uterine muscle contractility and cell communication
- Trained and supervised laboratory personnel
- Managed daily laboratory operations

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Presentations:

- Modell SM, Citrin T, Salinas-Nelson J, Coe SD. Linking populations in an online mentored distance learning course in public health genetics. Unite for Sight 4th Annual International Health Conference, Stanford University, Stanford, California, April 2007. (poster presentation)
- R Friedman, L Lachance, S Stoll, D Awad, N Clark. Characteristics of Asthma Programs with Positive Health Outcomes. American Academy of Allergy Asthma and Immunology Annual Meeting, San Diego, California, May 2007 (poster presentation)
- Lachance L, Friedman AR, Stoll S, Awad D, Clark N. Are Asthma Programs Positioned for Impact? Factors associated with success.. American Thoracic Society Annual Meeting, San Francisco, California, May 2007 (poster presentation)
- Clark NM, Friedman Milanovich AF, Lachance L, Stoll SC, Awad DF. Asthma program characteristics associated with clinical health outcomes: examining practice in the field to increase chances for success. European Respiratory Society Annual Meeting, Stockholm, Sweden, September 2007 (poster presentation)
- Clark NM, Friedman Milanovich AF, Lachance L, Awad DF, Stoll SC. Using outcomes of interest to plan asthma programs. American Public Health Association Annual Conference, Washington DC, November, 2007 (oral presentation)
- Clark NM, Lachance L, Friedman Milanovich A, Stoll S, Wilkin M and Awad D. Methods of Evaluation of Policy Change Achieved by Community Coalitions American Public Health Association's Annual Conference, San Diego, CA, October 2008 (oral presentation)

Publication:

- Clark, N.M., Lachance, L., Milanovich, A.F., Stoll, S., Awad, D., Characteristics of Successful Asthma Programs, Public Health Reports. 2009 Nov;124(6). 3-17

Other Reports:

- An exploration of community coalitions as a means to address overweight and obesity. A report of Allies Against Asthma from the Center for Managing Chronic Disease University of Michigan. Available online at: <http://cmcd.sph.umich.edu/obesity-report.html>. September 2007.
- Asthma programs with an environmental component: a review of the field and lessons for success. Available online at: <http://cmcd.sph.umich.edu/asthma-programs-with-an-environmental-component.html>. December 2007.

AWARDS AND HONORS

School of Public Health Full Tuition Scholarship, 1994-1996
Zeit Health Education Field Placement Scholarship, 1995
University of Michigan Class Honors, 1990-1993